Westside Salmon Announcement 1 Emergency Order 1 and 2

This is the Alaska Department of Fish and Game in Dillingham with an announcement regarding subsistence and commercial fishing in the Nushagak District. This is Westside Salmon Announcement number 1 issued Friday, May 27 at 9:00 a.m.

By regulation, subsistence fishing in the commercial fishing district will close at midnight on May 31. Subsistence fishing in the Nushagak Section of the Nushagak District will reopen by emergency order June 1, at 12:00 a.m. and remain open until further notice. This announcement pertains to the commercial fishing district only; subsistence fishing on the Dillingham beaches is not affected by this announcement. Subsistence users in Dillingham can get a subsistence permit by email or in the Dillingham office. Subsistence users in the Igushik Section are reminded that subsistence fishing is allowed during open commercial fishing periods.

Commercial fishing with set gillnets only, will open in the Igushik Section only, at 3:00 a.m. June 1 until further notice. Mesh size for all commercial openings in the Nushagak District is restricted to 5.5-inch mesh or smaller until further notice for the conservation of king salmon.

Commercial fishermen are also reminded that District Registration Cards must be filled out and filed with the department before they begin drift gillnet fishing anywhere in Bristol Bay or set gillnet fishing in the Nushagak District. District registration cards may be obtained at the Anchorage, King Salmon or Dillingham offices or downloaded from the internet. Cards may be returned by mail, email or in person.

Commercial fishing in the Togiak District opens June 1 and follows the regular weekly schedules in regulation.
