

RC051

Submitted by Denali National Park

Proposal 141, ACR 20

Legend

-  Wolf Townships
-  Township
-  Park Boundary
-  Game Management Units

20C

20A

T12S,
R11W, FM

T12S,
R10W, FM

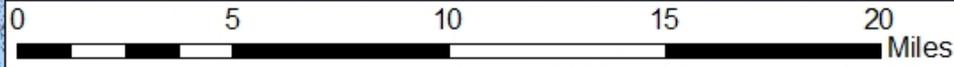

T12S,
R9W, FM

T13S,
R11W, FM

T13S,
R10W, FM

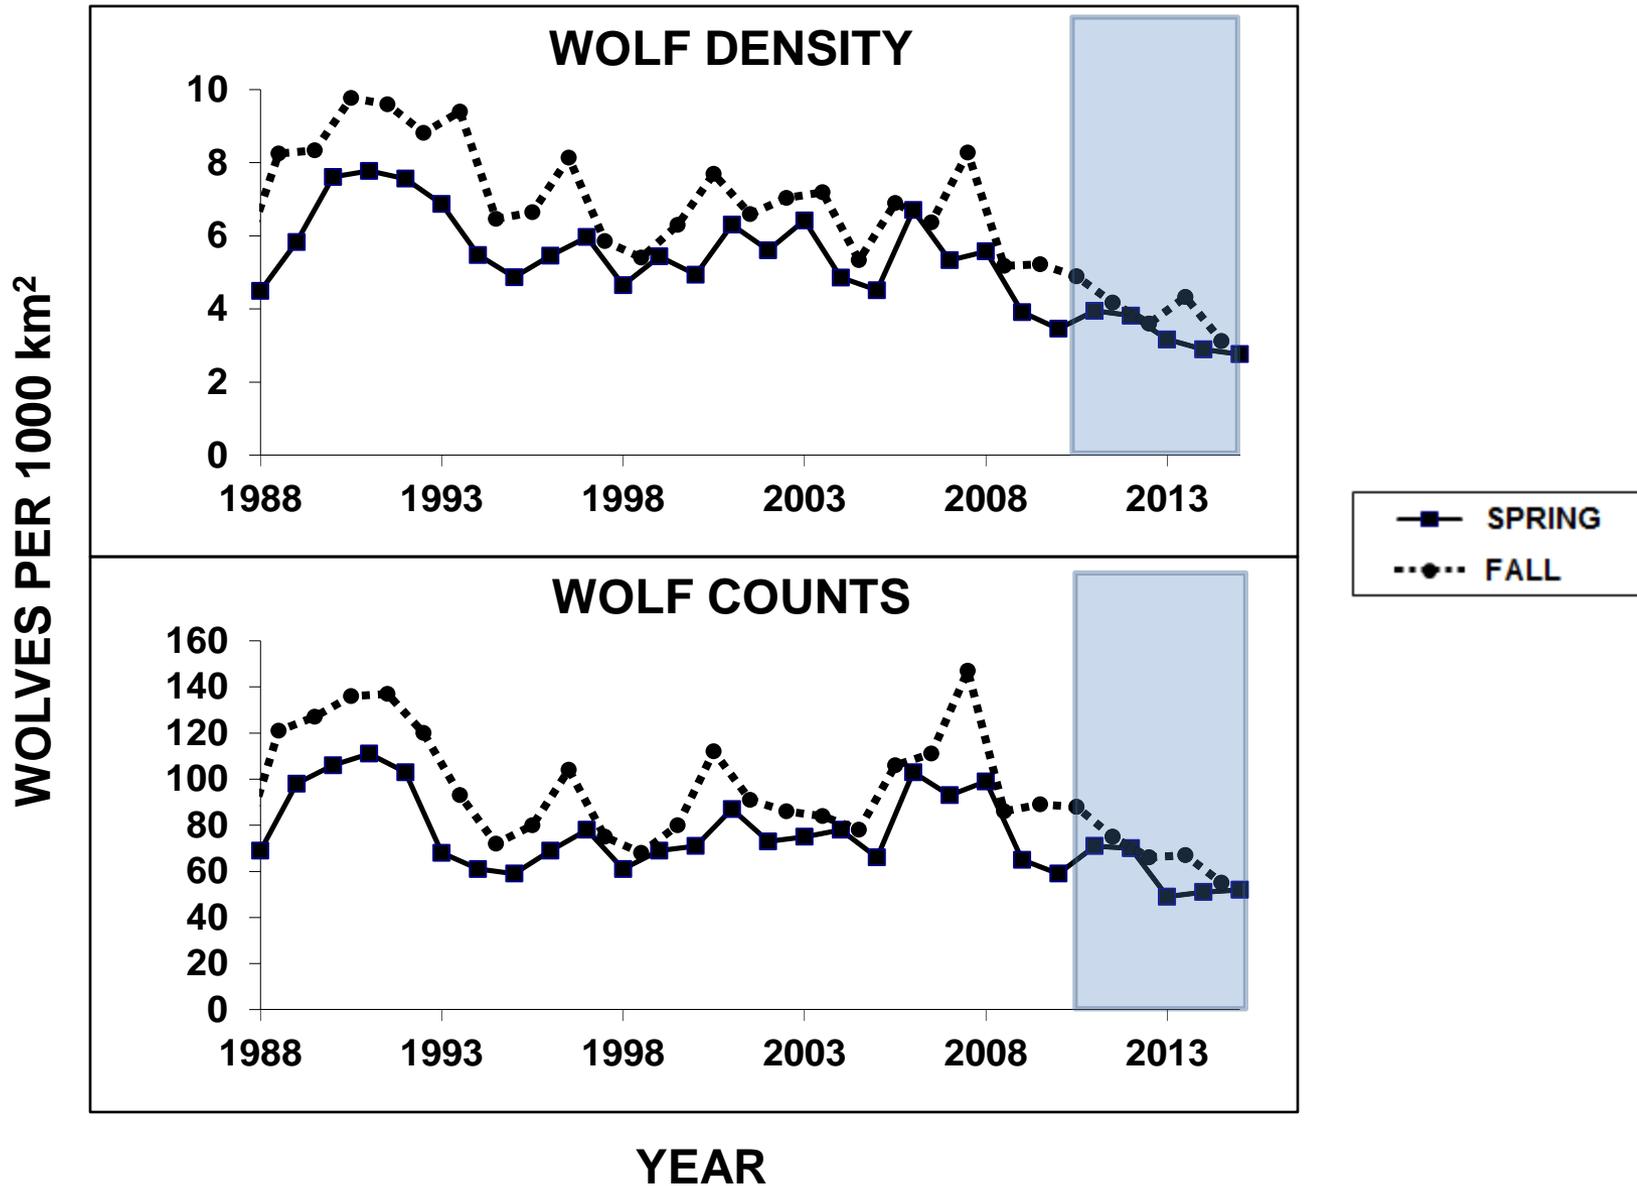

T13S,
R9W, FM

T13S,
R8W, FM

- Allowing take of grizzlies introduced use of bear baiting stations in this area
- Represents unforeseen consequence of increasing take for wolves when most vulnerable (during pregnancy and whelping), resulting in loss of reproductive capacity for packs
 - Especially important during this period of prolonged low densities
- Although not primarily allocative in nature, this unforeseen additional risk represents a decrease in allocation to both trappers and wolf viewers

Conservation Concern

Causality

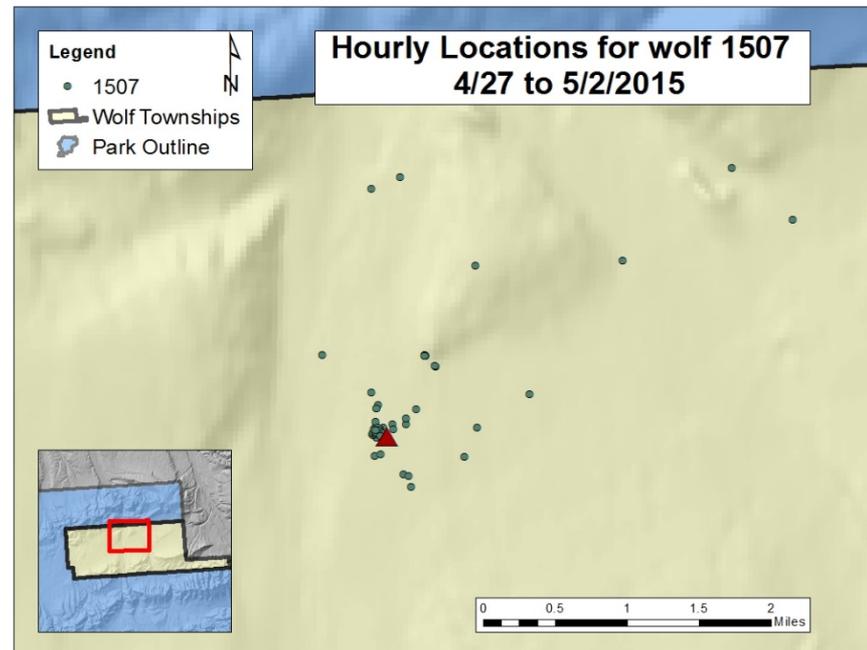

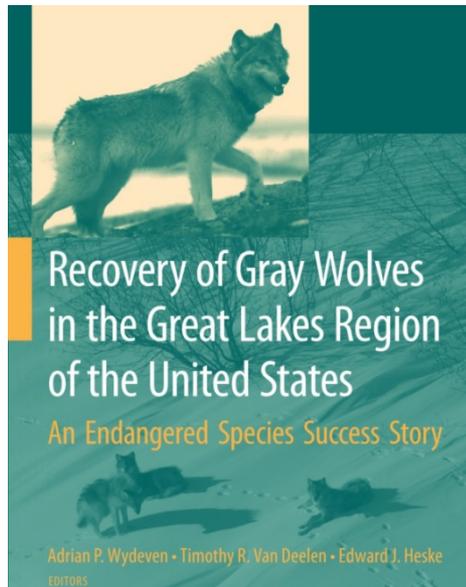

OPEN ACCESS Freely available online

PLOS ONE

Bear-Baiting May Exacerbate Wolf-Hunting Dog Conflict

Joseph K. Bump^{1*}, Chelsea M. Murawski¹, Linda M. Kartano³, Dean E. Beyer Jr.², Brian J. Roell²

¹ School of Forest Resources and Environmental Science, Michigan Technological University, Houghton, Michigan, United States of America, ² Wildlife Division, Michigan Department of Natural Resources, Marquette, Michigan, United States of America, ³ Biological and Environmental Sciences, University of Helsinki, Helsinki, Finland

Legend

- 1507
- ▭ Wolf Townships
- ▭ Park Outline

Hourly Locations for wolf 1507 4/27 to 5/2/2015

