

I wrote this deferred Proposal a couple years ago when things looked really good for Mulchatna caribou. The herd has not recovered as quickly as expected in the last two years.

The Management goal is 30-80,000 animals and we are not quite there yet.

After discussions with the Area Biologist over the last couple days, I don't think this proposal is appropriate at this time.

I would like to withdraw this proposal.